Case No. 22 Misc. 00005

~~PROPOSED~~ ORDER GRANTING APPLICATION FOR
JUDICIAL ASSISTANCE PURSUANT TO 28 U.S.C. § 1782

THIS CAUSE came before the Court upon the Application of BASF T.O.V., as claimant in the pending proceeding against PE Cherkes Trading House (f/k/a PE “Firma Bershad Agroplus”) (and its affiliates and officers, including Mr. Zulynskiy Stepan Olegovych), Agrarian Alliance LLC, STOV Dibrova I K, and Motoviltex LLC (the “Ukrainian Defendants”) before the Commercial Court of Dnipropetrovsk Oblast and the Courts of Vinnytsia, in Ukraine (“Ukrainian Proceedings”), for Judicial Assistance Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1782. The Court, having considered the Section 1782 Application, the Memorandum of Law, the Declaration of Grygoryi Sytenko, and the Declaration of Eugene Getty and accompanying Exhibits, and otherwise being fully advised in the premises, finds as follows:

A. Applicant has met the requirements under 28 U.S.C. § 1782 for granting the requested judicial assistance and relief.

B. For purposes of the instant Application, the following financial institutions and corporate entities reside or are found in the Southern District of New York: Citibank, N.A.; The Bank of New York Mellon; Société Générale, New York Branch; HSBC Bank USA, N.A.; BNP Paribas USA; JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A.; Barclays Bank PLC; Deutsche Bank Trust Co. Americas; The Bank of Nova Scotia, New York Agency; UBS AG; Bank of America, N.A.;

Standard Chartered Bank US; Commerzbank AG, New York Branch; and The Clearing House Payments Company, LLC (together the “Respondents”).

C. The documentary and testimonial discovery sought through this Application is for use in proceedings pending before a foreign tribunal.

D. The Applicant is an interested person within the meaning of the statute, in its capacity as creditor in the foreign proceeding.

E. The discretionary factors, as described by the United States Supreme Court in Intel Corp. v. Advanced Micro Devices, Inc. (542 U.S. 241, 247 (2004)), weigh in favor of granting the requested assistance.

F. More particularly: (1) the Respondents are not expected to become parties to the Ukrainian Proceedings, thus, the need for this discovery is more apparent; (2) there is no indication that the foreign tribunal would not be receptive to U.S. federal-court judicial assistance as requested in the Application; (3) the Application does not conceal an attempt to circumvent foreign proof-gathering restrictions; and (4) the Application seeks discovery that is not unduly intrusive or burdensome as the Application requests evidence of the type normally produced by financial institutions or corporate entities as third parties or parties in litigation.

Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED and ADJUGED as follows:

1. The Application is GRANTED.
2. Any Discovery taken pursuant to this Order will be governed by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.
3. The Applicant’s request for leave to conduct discovery including, but not limited to, leave to serve subpoenas in substantially similar form as the form attached to the Application and to take testimony is GRANTED.

4. The Applicant's request to be appointed as the person with the power to administer any necessary oath and take testimony or a statement is GRANTED.

5. The Respondents are ordered to preserve all relevant and potentially relevant evidence in their possession, custody or control until such time as Applicant communicates to them that the preservation is no longer necessary or until further order of this Court.

6. Applicant is further authorized to issue and serve additional follow-up subpoenas on the Respondents or third parties as may be necessary to obtain the documentary and testimonial evidence for use in the Ukrainian Proceedings.

7. Applicant is not required to serve the Application upon the Ukrainian Defendants and the Discovery Targets, as defined in the Declaration of Grygoryi Sytenko, and the Respondents.

8. Applicant is not required to serve this Order or subpoenas to the Respondents upon the Ukrainian Defendants and the Discovery Targets.

9. Nothing in this Order should be construed to prevent or otherwise foreclose Applicant from seeking modification of this Order or leave of Court to serve any additional subpoena on a person or entity.

10. The foregoing is without prejudice to the rights of Respondents to file a motion to vacate or quash.

IT IS SO ORDERED, this 14th day of January, 2022.
